“MPD Investigating Reported Bank Robbery”

The Morgantown Police Department responded to a hold up alarm of United Bank located at 154 Fayette Street. At approximately 3:34 pm today officers arrived at United Bank and found a robbery had just occurred.

The suspect was described as a white male in his mid-thirties and unshaven. His facial hair color is described as being dirty blonde/brown in color. The suspect was wearing a full brimmed floppy hat (described as a bush hat), a long sleeved black in color Pittsburgh Stealers shirt with two (2) yellow strips running the full length of the sleeves and a Pittsburgh Stealers logo outlined in white on the chest. The suspect also appeared to be wearing a light blue in color shirt underneath the long sleeve shirt and possibly removed he stealers shirt immediately following the robbery.

The suspect entered the bank and produced a note demanding money and fled the scene on foot. The suspect was last observed heading east on Fayette Street.

No weapons were displayed during this incident.

Detectives and Officers of the Morgantown Police Department are currently investigating this incident and anyone with information is asked to call 304-284-7522.

The Morgantown Police Department is committed to its goal of eliminating criminal activity in our city.
